

NCCJ ANNUAL BROTHERHOOD AWARDS DINNER: Gathered on the dais prior to the official ceremonies are the distinguished recipients of the 1998 Silver Medallions. They were honored for "exemplary humanitarian contributions to the total community transcending ethnic and cultural lines," by the Bayonne Chapter, National Conference of Christians & Jews at its 42nd annual event held recently. Honorees, seated from left, are: Mrs. Joan Zebrowski, civic leader; Mrs. Varda Wendroff, educator; and Mrs. Rose Marie Lindberg, corporate president. Joining in the tribute, from left rear, are: Chester Zebrowski and Arnold Wendroff behind their wives; and James Mitchell and Donald Lindberg behind their mother. Dr. Ellen Goldberg served as dinner chairman with 235 guests in attendance. Also recognized was John E. Januszewski, 1973 awardee on his silver jubilee. Mayor Leonard Kiczek presented citations on behalf of the city. Bayonne council members also attended.
