BIG DAY FOR POOR CHILDREN—About 200 children of ragpickers' and other poor families in Ueno, Asakusa and the "Village of Anis" in Sumida, Tokyo, were invited Sunday to join the celebration at the Church of the Assumption, Akabane, of Brother Zeno Zebrowski's 25th year in Japan. The children enjoyed candies, games, songs and movies. Photo shows Brother Zeno of the Conventual Franciscans with some of the children.

Gifts for Hokkaido School Children

Brother Zeno Zebrowski of the Conventual Franciscan Fathers (center) presented a truckload of clothes and stationery Wednesday, donated by school children in Tokyo, to their counterparts in Hokkaido through the Tokyo office of the Hokkaido Government. Takaichi Tanaka (left), deputy-chief of the office, received the relief goods in behalf of the Hokkaido school children as Masao Fujita, of the office looked on.
