To whom it may concern

The newest film about Brother Zeno is a wonderful one. Brother Zeno's dedicated life is a beautiful example of real love for fewer fortunate people. His unlimited love and great compassion shown in the soil of Japan can inspire the spirit of voluntarism and brotherhood among the people around the globe. I hope that the documentary film “Brother Zeno - Boundless Love” will be seen by many people world wide. That will help them to enter into the new Millennium with new hope of Peace, Love and Unity among the people of the world. May the documentary film “ Brother Zeno - Boundless Love” inspire as many people as possible from all over the world to carry on the wonderful spirit of voluntarism and true love for the needy shown by the Polish Franciscan.

I would like to congratulate to all the people who were involved in this wonderful project. We are very eager to see this film in Montreal.

Ps. Brother Zenon was my uncle and I am very proud of him. He inspired my life. Because of him, twelve years ago I became a Franciscan priest. I have already worked among the poor people of Kenya /Afryka/for several years. Presently, I work in Montreal, Canada. Brother Zeno will remain for me a wonderful example to imitate for ever.

With Peace & Goodness
